

16 November 2017

IGas Energy PLC

IGas Energy PLC is pleased to announce that the Environment Agency (EA) has issued a Mining Waste permit for the proposed flow tests on the rock formation called the Pentre Chert at its existing site in Ellesmere Port, Cheshire. The permit has been issued after extensive review of the company's plans and arrangements by the EA, and following full public consultation.

ENQUIRIES

Media and Communications Team:

0203 675 6059